Are you a Trading Standards professional looking for a role in managing Trading Standards?

We are seeking an experienced officer to take on a key leadership role within the Council's Public Protection Service.

The successful candidate will be responsible for leading on service delivery for core Trading Standards functions including; fair trading, doorstep crime, property agents, age restricted sales, intellectual property, illicit tobacco and metrology.

Weights and measures qualification is not a requirement for this role but you will be qualified to DCATS level or equivalent with a strong track record in Trading Standards work.

You will still contribute as an operational officer but will be a strategic thinker with an ability to develop innovative solutions. You may or may not have team leader experience but you will have good people skills and the ability to enthuse and motivate others. This is a rare opportunity to take on a first-tier management role in Trading Standards and help shape the direction of the service and the development of the team.
