

Trading Standards Officer x 2

1 Permanent and 1 Fixed Term (12 months from date of appointment)

Salary: £32,798 - £39,571 (Career Graded) 37 hours

BARNSELEY
Metropolitan Borough Council

Two Trading Standards Officer vacancies have arisen at Barnsley Metropolitan Borough Council based in our Regulatory Services team

Regulatory Services at Barnsley protect the health, safety and well-being of those who live, work in and visit the borough, enabling local businesses to comply with their regulatory responsibilities and protecting consumers in the Borough.

The Trading Standards team at Barnsley have been heavily involved in the Covid 19 response since the pandemic began. Following a recruitment exercise, we can now start to return to more traditional core Trading Standards duties and are recruiting for two Officers to help catchup with work in Trading Standards, particularly in key areas such as food standards, product safety, criminal fair trading and metrology.

You will be part of a team of 3 TSOs sharing investigations and conducting project work to ensure an even playing field for businesses. You will also be part of the wider Trading Standards team, including Tobacco Control and Animal Health and may be asked to provide support in these areas if required.

For an informal chat, contact the Service Manager for Trading Standards, Animal Health & the Dog Warden Service Christina Heeley on 01226 773743 or email christinaheeley@barnsley.gov.uk

What you'll need

To join us, you'll need a Degree in Trading Standards (or equivalent) and the successful completion of DTS/DCATS (or equivalent) modules/portfolios in Metrology, Food and or Agriculture/Feed You will also need recent relevant enforcement experience within the last 3 years.

We will also expect you to bring to the role a commitment to work flexibly, and an appetite for engaging in professional development where required to conduct certain duties
