A unique opportunity has arisen for two Regulatory Compliance Officers to work within the Trading Standards Service.

Protecting our communities is at the core of Wirral Council and as a Trading Standards Regulatory Compliance Officer you will contribute to the effective delivery of the statutory service using a wide range of consumer protection legislation ensuring goods and services sold within the Borough are safe and legal. The right candidate will assist in the delivery of the service by working with colleagues in Public Health to deliver specialist projects over a two year period linked to tackling illicit and illegal tobacco and alcohol products in the Borough, age restricted sales and business and consumer education programmes.
