

Across both beer and wine, there were 96 short measures found out of 137 tests, so 70% short measures.

70%

A total of 137 test purchases carried out.

41 short measures were short by 5% or over – 29% of the 137 test purchases.

We had nine local authorities take part in our survey, covering England, Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland.

86% of beer was short measured, and 43% of wine was short measured.

A measure 15% short was found on a 175ml glass of wine in Walsall, costing £3.20

The second-largest deficit of 13.14% was found in Northern Ireland, on a glass of wine purchased for £7.20

The third-largest deficit of 12% was found on a 175ml glass of wine in Havering, costing £5.75

