Useful information

Car parking

Please visit the homepage of the CTSI events website at <https://events.tradingstandards.uk/CTSIConference2025> for further information regarding parking options. The Winter Gardens does not have on-site public parking, however several public car parks are located close by, with the Alfred Street Car Park being the closest.

Directions by Car

The venue postcode is FY1 1HL. Please get directions from Google Maps

Rail

Blackpool benefits from three train stations - Blackpool North (closest station and approximately 10 minutes walk to the Winter Gardens), Blackpool South and Blackpool Pleasure Beach, which are connected to the mainline UK train network.

Air

Manchester Airport is located one hour (by car) to Blackpool. Blackpool (Blackpool North station) also benefits from a direct train line to the airport.

Getting around

For full details of bus and tram routes please visit <https://www.blackpooltransport.com>

Inclusive Spaces and Facilities

To support the comfort, wellbeing and inclusion of all delegates at the CTSI Conference, a number of facilities will be available throughout the event. This includes a multi-faith prayer room, unisex bathrooms, and a quiet room for those who may need a calm space to recharge.

These facilities are part of our ongoing commitment to ensure that conference is welcoming and accessible for all. Full details and locations will be provided on on-site signage.

Cloakroom facilities

There will be a facility to leave your coat, however this is not manned and coats are left at your own risk.

Our Code of Conduct

We expect all delegates at this event to be respectful and kind to others, regardless of race, religion, gender, age, orientation, disability, appearance, and size. You also pledge to speak up, or speak to us, if you witness or experience any behaviours that make you or others feel harassed, intimidated, discriminated against or excluded.

Anyone found to be behaving in breach of our Code of Conduct will be removed from the conference and the matter will be fully investigated.

We operate a zero-tolerance policy when it comes to inappropriate conduct and encourage complaints to be raised to CTSI staff and EDI representatives.

We look forward to seeing you in Blackpool.
