

Senior/Trading Standards Officer

London Borough of Hillingdon

£42,771 - £52,194 per year + £3,000 market factor supplement

36 Hours per week fixed term until 31 March 2028

Based in Uxbridge (hybrid working arrangements)

About the role

This is a role for a Trading Standards professional who will form part of the Councils Trading Standards and Proceeds of Crime Service. You will work on investigation and enforcement activities including product safety, doorstep crime, illicit alcohol and tobacco as well as a wide range of other trading standards enforced legislation. You will manage a complex caseload of investigations and complaints and ensure that you contribute effectively to team plans and Council priorities.

The Trading Standards and Proceeds of Crime Team is part of the Councils Public Protection and Enforcement service which includes Environmental Health, Licensing and Street Scene Enforcement.

About you

You will have demonstrable experience in the enforcement of Trading Standards and Public Protection legislation and be able to contribute confidently to Team Plans and Council priorities. You will be motivated, possess strong investigative skills and be highly organised. Excellent communication and inter-personal skills are expected as the role requires dealing with victims of crime in a sensitive and compassionate manner. You will have strong experience with the production of prosecution cases and be well versed at presenting evidence in Court. Applicants without a formal trading standards qualification will be considered providing their knowledge and experience can be demonstrated at the equivalent level.

About us

Hillingdon is London's second largest borough. Our staff live across Hillingdon and beyond, with our main council offices at the Civic Centre in the heart of vibrant Uxbridge town centre. Our Borough offers fantastic transport links with the A40, M25, the Metropolitan, Elizabeth and Piccadilly lines all local to us, so you can travel to work with ease, with free parking within our own car park. We also offer a hybrid working arrangements, with time balanced between the office and home. Putting our residents first is at the heart of everything we do, and we are embarking on an ambitious plan to modernise our offering, while sustaining the high quality services and facilities they expect.

What we offer

- competitive salary
- local government average salary pension scheme
- free parking if based at the Civic Centre
- generous holiday entitlement: a minimum 25 days a year (plus bank holidays), rising to 28 days after five years' service. For more senior positions holiday entitlements can rise to a maximum of 36 days
- career breaks and flexible working hours
- payment of professional fees
- season ticket loan
- a range of training courses

How to apply

For further information, please visit our recruitment website –

Senior / Trading Standards Officer - Hillingdon Council

For more information about this role, please contact Martin King, Team Manager, mking@hillingdon.gov.uk

Closing date for applications:
19 June 2026