

Qualification Framework

Moderator for Food Standards

Two exam cycles per year (May and November)

Chartered Trading
Standards Institute

CTSI are looking for a trading standards professional with a background in Food Standards, who is interested in the moderator role for the auditing of the Level 6 Trading Standards Professional Food Standards coursework. The role of moderator is to ensure that the coursework is audited correctly, in line with current FSA requirements and standards, by supporting the examiners in line with our Regulations and internal procedures.

You will have a strong knowledge and experience in this subject area.

You will be required to ensure that all examination processes associated with this role are met and you are able to work under pressure and to set deadlines. This is a paid role in line with the current CTSI payment structure.

You will take over the examining role for the November 2026 exam cycles onwards. A hand over period working with the current examiner will take place.

For further details about CTSI visit www.tradingstandards.uk.

For further information please contact Richard Cowles (Education and Training Manager), richardc@tsi.org.uk

The closing date for receipt of your CV is noon on 28th August. Interviews are expected to commence shortly thereafter.
