

Trading Standards Officer

£43,437.09 - £47,604.34 p.a.

Are you passionate about protecting consumers, supporting legitimate businesses, and making a real difference in your community?

Fife Council is looking for a motivated and enthusiastic Trading Standards Officer to join our professional and forward-thinking team. You will play a key role in investigating complaints, tackling unfair trading practices, supporting businesses to comply with the law, and protecting vulnerable consumers from harm.

This varied role offers opportunities to work across a wide range of regulatory functions including consumer protection, fair trading, product safety, scams prevention, legal metrology, and business compliance.

As a progressive employer, we offer the opportunity to work in this role as a blended working arrangement, combining homeworking with office and field-based duties across Fife as required.

You will be educated to SCQF Level 9 and hold an appropriate Trading Standards qualification, such as the CTSI Diploma, Diploma in Consumer Affairs and Trading Standards (DCATS) which must include the metrology module, or an equivalent qualification. Candidates who are currently working towards a recognised Trading Standards qualification, which includes the metrology module, may also be considered.
