Senior Trading Standards Officer

£43,941 - £50,583 per annum plus 7.5% Market Premium 36 hours per week | Permanent

Are you an experienced Trading Standards professional looking for a role where you can make a real difference to residents, businesses and communities?

At Bexley Council, you'll join a highly respected Public Protection team tackling issues that matter, from fraud, doorstep crime and unfair trading practices to product safety, intellectual property offences and age-restricted sales. This is an opportunity to lead complex investigations, shape innovative enforcement projects and work alongside local, regional and national partners to protect consumers and support legitimate businesses.
Our service delivers a wide-ranging and rewarding portfolio of work and is the Primary Authority for a major multinational retailer, giving you exposure to high-profile and varied regulatory challenges. As a senior member of the team, you'll play a key role in mentoring colleagues, influencing outcomes and driving service excellence.
We're looking for a motivated and knowledgeable professional who holds the DTS, DCATS or equivalent qualification, or can demonstrate substantial Trading Standards experience.

For an informal discussion, please contact William Ewing, Team Manager, on 020 3045 5631 or Bill.Ewing@bexley.gov.uk

Join us and help ensure Bexley remains a safe, fair and thriving place to live and work.
