

Victor Olowe

Victor Olowe is a governance consultant at Winzest Consulting, supporting organisations to strengthen their governance arrangements in order to enhance the confidence of their key stakeholders. Prior to this role, he was Chief Executive of the Council for Licensed Conveyancers.

He is currently a non-executive Independent Chair of the Examinations and Assessment Oversight Panel (EAOP) at the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA) and a non-executive council member of The Property Ombudsman (TPO). He is also a lay non-executive member of the Law Society's Accreditation Appeal Panel and a Governor at Morley College.

Victor's previous roles include being Head of Practice Standards at the Law Society/Solicitors Regulation Authority, Quality Manager with Pictons Solicitors and Liaison Manager at the former Legal Aid Board, now Legal Aid Agency. He also serves as a member of the TPO Disciplinary and Standards Committee.
