CTSI have been in discussions with the QAB regarding the ongoing concerns raised by candidates regarding exams and portfolios and the continuing issues due the Covid-19.

The QAB have taken the decision to allow candidates to defer their exam and/or portfolio to the May 2022 exam cycle, by completing the online September 2021 deferral form [link below].

Please note, all rules and regulations regarding the sitting of exams and the submission of portfolios will return to normal from, and including, the May 2022 exam cycle onwards.
