

Summary - Intro to Unit 4 Feed

UNIT DESCRIPTION

This unit will provide you with the knowledge and key understanding of the application of feed law.

You will learn about the legal requirements in relation to food standards, including formal sampling, their application to food. Additionally, you will learn about how food affects health and wellbeing.

Learning Outcomes:

The competence for this module is the demonstration of knowledge and understanding of:

- The role of the Food Standards Agency and Local Authorities in the delivery of feed law policy and enforcement.
- The framework of legislation designed to protect animal health and public health concerning feed law
- An understanding of the legislation and codes of practice relating to feed law
- The recognition of characteristics and features associated with the traceability of feed.

Unit assessments

Written exam: You will register for Stage 2 and complete the associated 1.5 hour written exam and demonstrate the knowledge requirements for this subject.

Oral exam: This 20-minute exam supports the written exam. You will answer specific questions asked by the examiner. Answers will be marked against set criteria.

Portfolio: You will complete the associated portfolio and demonstrate the skills requirement for this subject. You are required to submit the portfolio before taking the oral examination.

You will be required to take these assessments for the first time all together in the first sitting.

Training:

CTSI offer courses for all units within the CPCF via the Training Together Partnership. You will be taught in line with the unit learning outcomes. It is also expected that you will undertake your own learning.
