

Consumer Protection Inspector

BR9 to BR11 £29,448 to £35,171 depending on qualifications and experience

Bromley is London's largest borough where recent development and investment has seen it prosper making it a place where people want to live and work and spend their leisure.

Bromley have a full time vacancy in the Trading Standards team for an experienced enforcement officer who holds the DCA, DCATS or equivalent Trading Standards qualification.

We are looking for a well organised, motivated officer with a high level of professional ability in a wide range of areas including the investigation of complaints, inspections and project work. You need to be a good communicator, with strong investigative skills and have a flexible approach to work. A clear understanding of relevant legislation will be vital, along with the ability to work under pressure either as part of a team or on your own.

We can offer you the opportunity to develop your skills whilst working in our award winning team which has a proven track record in tackling consumer detriment. Bromley have locally determined pay and conditions. Starting salary is dependent on experience.

If you would like an informal chat about what Bromley can offer please contact Rob Vale, Head of Trading Standards & Community Safety, 020 8313 4785.

Essential car user applies.

We are committed to achieving equal opportunities in employment and service delivery.

We offer a generous package including competitive pay, career average pension scheme, flexible working practices and the Employee benefits scheme; Cycle2Work and a wide range of unique discounts.

To apply please go to www.bromley.gov.uk/jobsatbromley

We offer a generous reward package including competitive pay, final salary pension scheme, flexible working practices and the Bromley REALbenefits scheme; Childcare Vouchers, Cycle2Work and a wide range of unique discounts.

We are committed to achieving equal opportunities in employment and service delivery.

www.bromley.gov.uk

