

Trading Standards Enforcement Officer – Entry, Level 1 or Level 2

£18,755-£35,229

37 hours per week

Bodmin-Chy Trevail, Beacon Technology Park

Ref: 000006JK

About the role & About us

Trading Standards are at the forefront of protecting the food chain. High profile incidents such as the horsemeat scandal and large animal disease outbreaks such as Foot & Mouth and “Mad Cow Disease” have only highlighted the importance of effective advice and regulation across all aspects of the food chain.

With regular inspections of farming standards and food production controls across over 4500 commercial farm holdings, regular livestock markets, abattoirs and food production units and the investigation of associated serious criminal breaches and frauds this role will play a critical part in protecting the public and the farming industry.

This is a public/customer-facing role, where the statutory English language requirement for public sector workers applies.

We are willing to consider:

- Entry Level Trading Standards Enforcement Officer - Grade G £18,755-£23,111
- Level 1 Trading Standards Enforcement Officer - Grade H £21,141-£25,463
- Level 2 Trading Standards Enforcement Officer - Grade J £28,047-£35,229

There are three role profiles attached to this vacancy, please complete your application against the relevant role profile. You will be asked at application stage which level you are applying against.

Cornwall Council is committed to safeguarding and is an equal opportunities employer.
