

Regulating our Future Local Authority Change Adviser/ ROF LA Change Adviser

12 months Fixed Term Appointment

Closing date: 14 Apr 2019

Salary: Up to £45,107

Location - Multi-location based in London, York, Cardiff, Birmingham or home-based. The successful candidate will be expected to travel to London or Cardiff regularly for the initial training period and will be expected to travel across England and Wales on a regular basis, possibly with overnight stays.

About the job - The FSA is looking for a Local Authority (LA) Change Adviser to help rollout its Register a Food Business service to LAs. As part of the FSA's Regulating Our Future (ROF) programme, a new digitally enabled approach has been developed to make it easy for food businesses to register and receive relevant advice. The FSA has tested the service with several early adopting local authorities and is now ready for wider rollout.

The post holder will be:

- Instrumental in getting LAs ready for the changes and connecting them to the new service
- Readily available to support, engage and help empower LA teams make the change happen through consultation, communication, negotiations and building strong relationships
- Responsible for raising awareness of the new service across LAs, including attendance at national and regional LA liaison groups
