About Hillingdon

Hillingdon Council: Putting our residents first.

Hillingdon is a diverse, London Borough, it has won the prestigious gold award and won the large city category for its impeccable parks and green spaces in the Royal Horticultural Society's Britain in Bloom competition.

The Civic Centre is based in the heart of a vibrant shopping centre with excellent links to the City and central areas of London as well as Buckinghamshire and Berkshire.

About the job

The Trading Standards Service is a small but busy team who are looking to appoint a qualified Trading Standards Officer.

This is an exciting opportunity for the right individual to bring their expertise to manage a varied caseload which reflects the full range of trading standards legislation including complaints, prosecutions, proactive enforcement projects, investigations and business advice.

With Heathrow Airport in the Borough, there will also be an opportunity to contribute to the National Safety at Ports project, dealing with unsafe products at the point of importation.

About the person

The successful candidate will be enthusiastic, highly motivated, with excellent communication, enforcement and investigative skills.

You will have substantial experience in providing advice and information to, and influencing a variety of stakeholders, including businesses, consumers, enforcement partners and colleagues from vulnerable consumers to Directors and representatives of large businesses.

For this post, you must possess one of the following Trading Standards qualifications: Diploma in Consumer Affairs and Trading Standards (DCATS); Diploma in Trading Standards (DTS) or equivalent, or the Diploma in Consumer Affairs (DCA).

You will be required to make visits to traders and will therefore need a full driving licence and access to a vehicle for work purposes at all times.

If you would like an informal discussion about this post, please contact Martin King, Trading Standards Manager on 01895 277424.
