CHARTERED TRADING STANDARDS INSTITUTE

EXTRACT FROM REGULATIONS REGARDING CATEGORIES OF MEMBERSHIP (Including current membership fees)

9.1 A 'Full Member' shall be a person admitted as a Member of the Institute on the date of adoption of these Regulations or a person duly admitted as a full Member of the Institute after such date by the Board and holding an appropriate qualification as prescribed in the Regulations and an engagement acceptable to the Board. Any Member temporarily disengaged may, however, at the discretion of the Board, retain their membership of the Institute.

9.2 For the purposes of Regulation 9.1 an 'appropriate qualification' shall mean:

- (a) the appropriate statutory qualification to act in Great Britain as an Inspector of Weights and Measures;
- (b) the Diploma in Consumer Affairs; or
- (c) the Diploma in Consumer Affairs and Trading Standards.

Full members fee £124.00

10.1 A 'Life Member' shall be a person who is elected a Member for life by the Council in recognition of exceptional services to the Institute or the trading standards profession in the past, but may be in full time employment.

10.2 A Life Member shall not be required to pay any subscription to the Institute but otherwise shall be entitled to the rights and privileges of a Full Member. The nomination papers of a Life Member shall set out the reasons for the proposal and require a seconder plus the signature of not less than six Members of the Institute and which shall be provided in writing to the Council prior to consideration.

11.1 A 'Retired Member' shall be a person who has been duly admitted by the Board as a retired Member and who, having been a Full Member or Associate of the Institute, ceased to be eligible for such membership or associateship on retirement from their qualifying appointment. Such retired person may become a Retired Member of the Institute, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Board and shall have all the rights and privileges of a Member of that category of membership such Retired Member had immediately prior to retirement. Subscriptions shall be payable at the rate prescribed for Retired Members.

Retired members fee £41.00

13.1 An 'Associate Member' must have been duly admitted by the Board as an associate of the Institute and shall be a person holding an appropriate qualification as prescribed in this Regulation and an engagement acceptable to the Board in the field of trading standards, the public services or with a consumer orientated body either within the British Isles or elsewhere, provided that such person is not eligible for any other class of membership. Persons not holding an appropriate qualification but whose length of service in a qualifying appointment is acceptable to the Board may be admitted as an Associate Member. For the purposes of this Regulation 'an appropriate qualification' shall be as prescribed by the Board.

13.2 An Associate Member shall have all the rights and privileges of a Member except the right to vote and shall not be eligible for election to the Council.

For the purpose of this Regulation an appropriate qualification will be as prescribed by the Board. As of the 01/04/15 these include the DCA part one, FCATS, and CSCATS qualification

Associate members fee £83.00

14.1 A 'Student Member' shall be a person who has been duly admitted by the Board as a student Member and shall be a person who is registered as a student for one of the Institute's qualifications or other course of study eventually leading to one of the Institute's qualifications, provided that such person is not eligible for any other class of membership.

14.2 The maximum period of student membership shall be four years, provided that an extended period of student membership may be granted where the Board considers that a Student Member has demonstrated exceptional reasons why the usual four year limit should not apply.

14.3 A Student Member shall have all the rights and privileges of a Member except the right to vote and shall not be eligible for election to the Council.

Student Member £41.00

12.1 An 'Honorary Member' shall be a person duly admitted by the Council as an honorary Member, who has attained eminence in the administration of the laws relating to trading standards or distinguished attainments associated with or interested in the work of trading standards.

12.2 An Honorary Member shall not be deemed to be a Member and shall not be a member and shall not be entered on the Register of Members.

12.3 An Honorary Member shall not be required to pay to the Institute any subscription and shall not have the right to vote and shall not be eligible for membership of the Council. An Honorary Member shall remain so for as long as the Council shall determine.

Honorary member fee zero.

15.3 A 'Corporate Affiliate Member' shall be a body corporate admitted by the Board as a corporate affiliate which is desirous of promoting the objectives of the Institute. A Corporate Affiliate Member shall not have the right to vote or be eligible for election to the Council. The conditions relating to corporate affiliate membership and the amount of subscription due to the Institute shall be decided by the Board.

N.B. Registered charities and non-profit making organisations will receive a 10% discount on Corporate Affiliate 1 & 2

There is a Separate application form for this category. For further information please contact Elaina Jones via e-mail at elainaj@tsi.org.uk

15.1 An 'Affiliate Member' shall be a person who has been duly admitted by the Board as an affiliate Member on such conditions as the Board may decide and shall be a person who is not eligible for any other class of membership but who is desirous of promoting the interests and objectives of the Institute. The conditions relating to affiliate membership and the amount of subscription due to the Institute shall be decided by the Board.

15.2 An Affiliate Member shall have all the rights and privileges of a Member except the right to vote and shall not be eligible for election to the Council.

Affiliate members £100.00

16. An 'International Member' shall be an individual or an organisation resident outside the British Isles which has been duly admitted by the Board as an International Member and which is desirous of promoting the objectives of the Institute. An International Member shall not have a right to vote or be eligible for election to the Council. The conditions relating to international membership and the amount of subscription due to the Institute shall be decided by the Board.
