

2021 CTSI SYMPOSIUM

Civica

Date: Tuesday 28 September 2021, 16:10

Challenges presented in a post-pandemic world

‘Challenges presented in a post-pandemic world’ is an interactive session, designed to bring Trading Standards professionals together to inspire each other for the first time in more than year. Share the challenges (and opportunities) you expect to see in a post-pandemic world and reflect on the responses of your peers. Come away motivated by fresh ideas!

Facilitators

- Emily Douglin, Managing Director - Regulatory Services, Civica
- Elizabeth O’Driscoll, Head of Innovation, Civica

What we will be doing

Agenda
Introduction	We start the session by introducing our activity and sharing a short ‘lightning pitch’ of ideas about key trends impacting the Trading Standards profession.
Brainwriting	This is your chance to capture and share challenges you see facing the sector.
Wall of challenges	We will create our shared challenges wall, reflecting the collective thinking the group.
Final thoughts	Be inspired to continue the conversation over networking drinks.

Learning outcomes:

Why should you attend?

- A chance to join like-minded colleagues to identify areas of shared challenge
- Reflect on the challenges as a collective group and identify priority challenges that need to be solved
- Open opportunities for further networking with peers.
- Findings from the session will be made available for participants after the event.

We look forward to welcoming you!
