The benefits of using the L4 Regulatory Compliance Officer Apprenticeship

A presentation, discussion and Q&A format to examine the benefits of the L4 Regulatory Compliance Officer Apprenticeship including improved employee retention, increased levels of productivity and the development of the workforce (including both existing and new employees) within Trading Standards. This will be done through conversation with current L4 RCO users before opening the floor to the delegates to ask questions.

Learning outcomes

Increased knowledge of Apprenticeships, how they work and how they can benefit the employer

First-hand experience of the L4 RCO from existing users

How to enrol onto cohorts and what's required from an administrative perspective
