Responding to the threats and challenges of IP crime

Speakers: Helen Barnham

An overview of the current IP landscape highlighting threats and challenges from a UK IPO perspective. To share the IPO's response to addressing these threats and challenges and look at how Trading Standards and others can play a part in tackling IP crime and criminality across the UK. There will be a Q & A session at the end. PO would welcome questions in advance of the session.

Learning outcomes:

Increase awareness of the wider work of the IPO

Increased knowledge of the IP landscape
